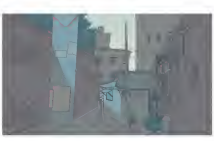
Hello? Yes, Uncle, I've finished packing. So...

Yes yes! I love my new phone. Thank... Internets also! And and
It seems that new models are actually good. It was worth pestering for

Ah, don't worry about that. I can go alone

Where would you like to go to?

Then I, will be going.



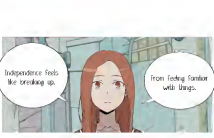
Youre not going to go with me, right? Of course..

Yool..

I know. From now on I need to do things myself.

Continuing to be supported by uncle I know that. that can no longer happen.

This scenery will be the last as well.



Independence feels like breaking up.
From feeling familiar with things.

I'll call often.

No you don't. Never to.

Life is being alone anyways. So I need to be used to that.
I'll be weak if I keep thinking that Uncle is there.

Okay... Bye, Yool.

Hello?
Yool? It's Yool right? Where are you?!!

Yool!!!

Ah, sorry!!
No, it's okay.

Ah...

I thought I would be alone. Living alone...

But still, I'm happy to see you again.

You know, Uncle said so. Life is boring alone and is for one person but I thought about it.. You'll be a lover once you die eruperly..
Living together with somebody while living your short life, wouldn't it be better?

Don't you want to do that?

So granted it's like that, what are you going to do about it? I don't even have a ticket.
It's okay. You don't need a ticket, anyway.

Wh-at?
See, look here

Huh?

Ticket
There's no destination... on the ticket...?
Standard
Standing room
0000 0000 0000 00

Come to think of it there's nobody here, there was no one from the station as well?

I can't see anything outside..

Where does this train go to?

I don't know. as well

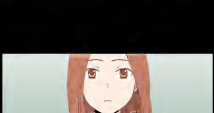
Huh?
Because this is a dream. Yours and mine...

There's nothing known for certain.
Adolescence is like that anyway.
It's like a train ride with no destination and nobody there's no destination and outside everything is flashing by so you can't see anything.

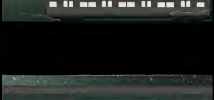
Even so, it's precisely because it's unsure that we can't help but want to see what's up ahead.
I'm curious to see what my future will be like, you know, and more.

Yes, Yool is right.

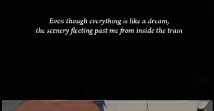
Life is uncertain anyway and prime is merely a moment which could only be a dream.



but because of that sweet prime dream we can hang in there and live?



Even though everything is like a dream,
the scenery fleeting past me from inside the train



Right with somebody beside me and remembering me,
with that my 19th may even be enough.

Like that my boyhood is ending.
